

Registrations now open for the Moving Up programme in January 2024

Our Moving Up programme supports Black and Asian minority groups who are managers or aspiring managers and have the desire and drive to progress in their career but are facing blockages and resistance preventing them from doing so.

The programme will be delivered through blended learning – a combination of self-learning modules and three live online sessions.

The workshop dates are:

- Wednesday 31 January 2024, 09:30 - 16:00
- Wednesday 6 March 2024, 09:30 - 16:00
- Monday 8 April 2024, 09:30 - 16:00

If you're a Black or Asian manager or aspiring manager, this programme is all about you. By registering for this programme, you'll gain an increased understanding of who you are, your strengths and your weaknesses and a variety of techniques to help overcome any personal challenges you may have. It will focus on increasing your confidence and self-belief, to allow you to grow and progress to where you want to be in your career.

Cost of the programme

The programme costs £750+VAT. If you're an ADASS member, you may qualify for a discount. Please contact your local ADASS about this.

We're pleased to confirm that employers can now claim £500 per participant once the learner has completed the course and received their certificate, subject to meeting the eligibility criteria for the Workforce Development Fund.

Find out more and book your place

For enquiries, please email MovingUpProgramme@skillsforcare.org.uk

Please forward this information to relevant contacts in your network

Moving Up can be commissioned by trusts, partnerships, organisations, local authorities or other commissioning groups. Please email business.development@skillsforcare.org.uk to ask for details.